Notes from the boss.....

It is no use saying that the Freight Rover Trophy was not a priority this season because it was. I am one of those people who believe that winning any game is a priority and I was very disappointed to go out of the competition at Bury on Tuesday night.

I happen to think we were a little bit unfortunate not to have the goal given in our favour near the end but that's the way it goes. What I can say about the Bury game, however, is that if the players can continue to show that level of commitment to each other and to me then we will have no problems. I think the supporters who were at Bury will agree that our players could not be faulted for the effort they put in.

I was particularly pleased with the way Steve Thompson and Julian Darby played in midfield, once again showing how they have improved lately. We had the spirited performances at the back from Mark Came and Dave Sutton.

I'm also delighted with the way some of our youngsters are staying the course. Young Paul Hughes is offering us plenty to look forward to in the future, we've blooded young Ian Callaghan already and Nicky Brookman is showing signs that he is just dying to get back into the side regularly.

Ian Stevens is still such a young man and still learning his trade. He has been sharp enough to get in some good scoring positions and just needs to start making more of them. He should perhaps take a look at John Thomas as an example.

We have our injury problems but we are determined not to let them prevent us achieving our goals.

Steve Elliott has had an ankle operation and I fear he will be out for another five weeks or so but Jeff Chandler is on the mend and has just finished his second week at the Lilleshall rehabilitation centre.

Despite Tuesday's disappointment, I'm sure we can bounce back with the right result today against a Scunthorpe team which also has its sights on the leader board.

SCUNTHORPE UNITED

Scunthorpe is a club on the move!

Within a year, the club should have transferred to its new £3.5m stadium being built two miles from the present ground. Club Chairman, Graham Pearson, says the new ground on fifteen acres of land near the motorway network, will accommodate up to 12,000 supporters. It will feature private boxes and a restaurant in one of the stands. Scunthorpe want to generate more money on match days by encouraging fans into the ground earlier and holding on to them longer.

Like other clubs, Scunthorpe have had their problems with the local safety inspector. They would have had to spend £400,000 on the present ground to comply with the strict new standards. "But the new stadium gives this club a new lease of life—a new beginning," says Mr. Pearson. And with the new ground goes hopes of promotion.

VISITORS PEN FILE

BILLY RUSSELL—Full Back. Born Glasgow 14.9.59. Previous Clubs: Everton, Glasgow Celtic, Doncaster Rovers. Former Everton apprentice who tried his luck with Celtic before joining Doncaster for the 1979/80 season. After six seasons at Belle Vue he joined Scunthorpe. He can also play in mid-field and possesses a powerful shot. Had played 321 League games by the end of last season.

PAUL LONGDEN—Full Back. Born Wakefield 28.9.62. Previous Club: Barnsley. Joined United in August, 1983 immediately gaining a regular place at right back. Missing from the first team the following season but established himself in the side at Left-back during 1985/6. A consistent performer, strong in the tackle.

RICHARD MONEY—Defender. Born Lowestoft 13.10.55. Previous Clubs: Fulham, Liverpool, Derby (on loan), Luton, Portsmouth. Originally began his league career with Scunthorpe, making 165 appearances before moving on to Fulham during 1977/78. Rejoined United in October, 1985. Had a 7 week spell as acting manager prior to Mick Buxton's appointment in April, 1987. Normally plays at the centre of defence but can also play at full back or in midfield.

TONY BROWN—Central Defender. Born Bradford 17.9.58. Previous Clubs: Leeds United and Doncaster Rovers. A newcomer to the Club having been signed in the close season from Doncaster where he spent three seasons. He didn't begin his football league career until joining Leeds in March 1983.

STEVE LISTER—Midfield. Born Doncaster 18.11.61. Previous Club: Doncaster Rovers. Joined United in the summer of 1985 after 228 league appearances for Doncaster. Has a good shot and likes to get forward as often as possible, which is proved by his 11 goals last season. Also performs well at the centre of defence and has been used as emergency striker.

ANDY FLOUNDERS—Forward. Born Hull 13.12.63. Previous Club: Hull City. Played well over 100 games for the Tigers, scoring more than 50 goals, before losing his place in the side last season. Signed by United last March to replace long-term injury victim Ian Richardson. Provided much needed support for Steve Johnson. Always alert to goal-scoring opportunities he scored 6 times from 15 appearances.

DAVID HILL—Midfield. Born Nottingham 6.6.66. Previous Clubs: none. Joined the Club as a youngster and made his debut during 1983/4. Has now made over 100 appearances. A natural competitor, enthusiastic, and quick into the tackle.

ANDY STEVENSON—Midfield. Born Scunthorpe 29.6.67. Progressed via the youth and reserve teams to make two substitute appearances for the senior side during 1985/6. Made his full debut last season but was troubled by injuries throughout the campaign.

TONY DAWS—Forward. Born Sheffield 10.9.66. Previous Clubs: Notts County and Sheffield United. Joined Scunthorpe during the summer after little opportunity at his two previous Clubs. A lightweight, but nimble and quick attacker who will provide competition for the first team regulars.

PAUL NICOL—Central defender. Born Scunthorpe 31.10.67. Played regularly for the Juniors and Reserves over the past two seasons and made his first team debut last term.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES

In Division 1 Brian Clough still reckons that Liverpool can be caught and his young Notts; Forest outfit are making a brave attempt but they're 15 points behind the Pool's tally of 59 points. At Anfield last week Liverpool deposed of third placed Arsenal, 2-0 in a game that was transmitted 'live' to viewers in 50 countries around the world. Their lethal finishing must have frightened Europe!

Bottom placed Charlton helped Liverpool along after forcing a 2-2 draw at Forest and who would have volunteered to be in the home dressing room after that?

Man.Utd. attracted 35,000 to Old Trafford for Southampton but Colin Clarke silenced the Stretford End with two goals in a surprise win. Graeme Sharp kept his goalscoring touch for Everton at Norwich where the visitors romped home 3-0, and last years Cup Finalists, Spurs and Coventry finished all square at White Hart Lane, 2-2.

In Division 2 Aston Villa scraped home 1-0 at home to Ipswich and that was enough to keep them top of the table. Creeping up on the blind side are Blackburn, now placed fourth and Ewood must have erupted when Steve Archibald scored after just one minute against Hull, final scoreline 2-1. Manchester City travelled south to Plymouth and went 2-0 up, the second by ex-Wanderer Neil McNab but the home team replied with three in the second half.

In Division 3 neighbours Bury travelled to Aldershot and after indifferent displays in recent weeks got back to winning ways. Sam Elliss' Blackpool* however failed 1-0 at Bloomfield Road at the hands of Brentford. Preston forced a 2-2 draw at Rotherham and Wigan had success at home to Walsall as they jostle for a promotion place but leaders Sunderland opened up a slight gap after a victory over Brighton at Roker.

In Division 4 the top two, Wolves and Leyton Orient had to share the spoils with Stockport and Crewe respectively. Frank Worthington popped up again to temporarily silence the huge Wolves backing. Our other neighbours Rochdale failed to capitalise in a 0-0 home draw with Exeter and Burnley came back empty handed from Cambridge. Here at Burnden we envisaged a tough encounter with Torquay and substitution played a big part where No.14, Gardiner, scored his goal of the season to gain the visitors maximum points and they now occupy fourth place.

It's goodbye to a second appearance in the Freight Rover Final after narrowly losing out a Gigg Lane in mid-week. An evenly balanced game this time went in the favour of the home team but this was a spirited performance including a 'disallowed' John Thomas goal.

GUEST SPOT

THE OTHER LIFE OF DAVE FELGATE

When it comes down to marketing and public relations Bolton Wanderers are renowned to be tops. Only last week for instance every Lifeline member was personally invited to the Torquay game as Club guests to witness the draw for the fabulous Lifeline prize—an apartment in Tenerife.

Going back further, remember the 'Superwhites Nights' when the team, headed by Commercial Manager Alf Davies would choose a different venue every so often and spend their social time chatting and mixing with supporters. Even now the players participate in less publicised events such as Lightline cheque presentations at pubs around Town—and Nat goes along too.

It's a matter of creating a good Club image and modern day players are expected to participate in such activities, as part of the job. A few weeks ago Dave Felgate was approached to do the 'honours' at a simple presentation of trophies in Astley Bridge at the Lamb Hotel, a pub which has a fair amount of Wanderers fans and subscribe regularly to the Nightline fund raising scheme.

David duly accepted and took his wife Lynne along as well and they were warmly greeted. Earlier in the day the former Welsh International had played a part in the victory over Stockport and the game was an obvious topic for conversation. In particular, three keen fans in Paul Stones, Mark Fielding and Chris Ormrod commanded Dave's attention as he answered questions virtually in rotation.

After the presentation and camera flash bulbs Dave turned to pottin 'em instead of stoppin 'em as he accepted a challenge to play pool. David managed to keep another clean sheet whether it be by foul means; or fair. The whole evening proved to be enjoyable and successful for everyone concerned, so much so that David paid compliment to the three lads and arranged for them to be his guests at the next home game—the encounter against Scarborough.

Paul, Mark and Chris thoroughly enjoyed their day at Burnden and now David has three more fans to his club.

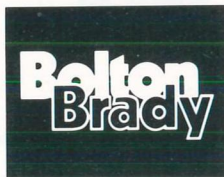

He must have done a fair job because we believe that landlord Derek Fielding is trying to increase his Nightline membership with his 'regulars' in a bid to return the compliment for the Wanderers.

Last Sunday, David turned up at Leigh Rugby ground and even there he ended by carrying out the Club's Lifeline draw.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 22nd January, 1983.

The Wanderers registered their first away win for nine months with a 3-2 scoreline over Oldham Athletic. It took only four minutes for the Wanderers to go in front thanks to a volley from Chris Thompson. Roy McDonough equalised on the half-hour for the home side but minutes later they were reduced to ten men when Roger Wylde was sent off after a clash with Mike Doyle. Jeff Chandler restored Bolton's lead with a far post header in the 59th minute but Oldham equalised a second time through McDonough.

Six minutes from time Wayne Foster hit a low shot past the advancing Andy Goram for the Wanderers winner. 28th January, 1983. An own goal from Mike Doyle separated the Wanderers and Sunderland in a friendly at Burnden.

10 YEARS AGO. 21st January, 1978.

Bolton struggled against lowly Hull City on a skidpan of a Burnden Park pitch. Few real openings were created but it all came right for the Wanderers four minutes into the second half. A Roy Greaves cross found Peter Reid whose header was blocked on the line. The ball came out to Neil Whatmore who hammered home his 15th goal of the season for a couple of valuable promotion points.

28th January, 1978. The Wanderers fourth round FA Cup tie with Mansfield Town at Burnden was postponed due to a waterlogged pitch.

15 YEARS AGO. 23rd January, 1973.

Blackburn Rovers, who were four points behind the Wanderers in the third division were due to visit Burnden but the game was postponed due to fog.

27th January, 1973. Bolton went down to a single goal defeat at Plymouth Argyle. The winner came in the 52nd minute when an Alan Welsh shot struck the crossbar and Les Latcham headed the rebound into the net.

31st January, 1973. The Wanderers took over second spot in the third division with a 1-0 home win over Wrexham. A crowd of 16,732 saw Paul Jones score the winner with a header from a Ron Phillips cross after eight minutes.

RESERVES NEWS

NEWCASTLE UNITED RESERVES . . . 5

BOLTON WANDERERS RESERVES . . . 2

13th January, 1988.

The Wanderers second string made their longest away trip of the season to promotion favourites Newcastle but the result hid a hard working Bolton performance.

Things were made harder due to the fact that injuries left the Wanderers without any recognised strikers and so Nicky Brookman and Chris Banks filled the positions both to good effect.

Things started badly as Newcastle had built up a two goal lead in the first eleven minutes of the game. Paul Stephenson opened the scoring, converting a simple chance, David Robinson capitalising on some poor defensive play for the home sides second goal.

Bolton gradually contained the slide and worked their way back into the game with a delightful goal in the 35th minute. Nicky Brookman headed a long ball down into the path of Bob Savage who rocketed home an unstoppable left foot volley from twenty yards.

From then on it was the Wanderers who looked the better side and they fully deserved the equaliser which came in the 56th minute. Ian Callaghan's cross found Chris Banks who headed towards goal only to see his effort pushed away by United 'keeper Simon Bishop. The rebound fell to Nicky Brookman who forced the ball over the line from close in.

United regained the lead in the 74th minute and with it took the upper hand. Tony Lormor rifled home a long range speculative effort and three minutes later David Robinson scored their fourth from a similar position.

To come from behind to wipe out a two goal deficit for a second time was too much to ask for the Wanderers youngsters and six minutes from time Andy Thomas scrambled home United's fifth goal.

Team: Price, Hughes, O'Brien, Callaghan, Spooner, Winstanley, Brown, Savage, Brookman, Banks, Booth. Subs: Jackson, McKearney.

Well, it looks like being two weeks in a caravan at Rhyl this year, my dreams in tatters after not winning the Life-Line Star Prize of an apartment in Tenerife drawn at last week's home game. But there's always next year and you never know the headlines might just read—Safe Hans scoops apartment on sun-kissed island! You know it's strange what day-dreaming can do to you, one minute you're busy trying to forecast the Pools and the next minute your mind's miles away on a sandy beach with the sun beating down on you, while a lovely Senorita is rubbing sun oil all over your back.

Now you're probably reading this at half-time, after sucking your way through a quarter of Uncle Joe's Mint Balls, thinking what is this man talking about on a freezing January day when it's not fit to turn a dog out and your fingers and toes have gone completely numb. Because even if you won the apartment you wouldn't go when the lads are playing and then when the season is over from May to August, it's too hot for your liking. Never mind, there's one consolation they have got in Spain, they don't have Jimmy Hill.

Turning our attention to this afternoon's visitors Scunthorpe, we welcome Mick Buxton and his lads who must be looking to the future with quite a bit of excitement, because as well as being promotion hopefuls, next season will see United move into a brand new Stadium, purpose built for the Club. When you think of Scunthorpe and their past players such as Ray Clemence and Kevin Keegan, who both went on to make a great career out of football, my mind always turns to that man with the much smaller ball who also turned out in a Scunthorpe shirt, yes you've guessed it, Ian Botham. What can be said of the man who is now starring for Queensland in Australia, but what a wonderful all-rounder and also a useful footballer.

DEREK BOOTH

This weeks Player Profile features one of the younger members of the Wanderers set-up, Derek Booth. Derek who is on his 2nd year YTS apprenticeship hails from the Wigan area and he is a versatile attacking player, who is just at home on the wing or directly up front. When Derek joined the club he suffered a back injury which kept him out of action for six months, but he has fought his way back to full fitness and has established himself in this season's successful Reserves team.

YOUTH TEAM NEWS

The Wanderers Youth Team have a home tie against Oldham Athletic down here at Burnden Park on Monday, 15th February, 1988 as they start their defence of the Lancashire F.A. Trophy they won back in May. Steve Carroll, the Youth Team coach will be looking for another good performance as they put up against Hull in the F.A. Youth Cup, but this time with the result going in our favour. This year's squad comprises of schoolboys, first year YTS apprenticeships and only six of last years team, with the likes of Hughes, Callaghan, Brookman and O'Brien now valuable members of Phil Neal's first team squad and not eligible for the Youth Team. Steve will be looking for his team to progress to the next Round stage and states, "From my own and the players angles it is important to win but also equally important to play well. We have an inexperienced team but I have every confidence in their ability".

So make Monday, 15th February a date in your diary and come down and cheer the lads on to victory. Kick-off time 7.00 p.m.

REFLECTIONS

The Wanderers face Scunthorpe United today for only the sixth time in the Football League.

The first encounter took place at Burnden in October, 1972, when both clubs were in the Third Division. The Wanderers at the time were in 5th position whilst United were 21st but they became the first side that season to take a point from Burnden with a goalless draw resulting.

The following March Bolton made their first League visit to the Old Show Ground as leaders of the Division whilst the home side were rooted at the foot of the table having suffered seven consecutive defeats.

Rod Fletcher put United in front in the 73rd minute and it appeared that a shock result was on the cards but with seven minutes remaining Garry Jones slotted home the equaliser for the Wanderers.

It wasn't until September, 1983 that the clubs faced each other again when the Wanderers went down to a single goal defeat at Scunthorpe. The winning goal came ten minutes from time when Chris Cowling chipped Simon Farnworth from twenty yards out. Minutes later Bolton were denied a penalty when Steve Thompson was floored by Neil Pointon, who is now with Everton, but only a corner was awarded.

United made their last visit to Burnden in January, 1984, and once again the result was goalless. Five days earlier United had put four goals past Leeds United in an FA Cup tie but for this game they were intent on putting up the shutters to take a point back over the Pennines in an attempt to stave off relegation.

Earlier this season the points were shared in an entertaining 1-1 draw at the Old Show Ground.

Trevor Morgan headed home a Dave Sutton cross in the 9th minute to give Bolton a lead they held onto until the dying seconds. Then Dave Sutton hauled down striker Andy Flounders on the edge of the penalty area but the linesman indicated it was inside the area and Billy Russell converted the penalty kick.

IT'S A FACT

The scoreless draw at Halifax Town on 12th January was the Wanderers 800th Football League draw. The first came in the club's 13th League game, a 4-4 draw at Blackburn Rovers, with only two games in the entire season ending goalless.

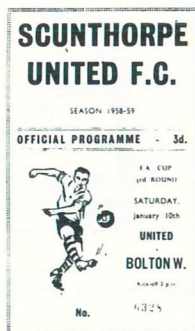

Julian Darby clocked up his 50th Wanderers League appearance last Saturday.

GOLDEN OLDIES

Today we reproduce the cover of the only FA Cup tie played between the two sides which took place at the Old Show Ground in January, 1959.

United were at the time in the Second Division whilst the Wanderers were in the top flight and had won the Cup the previous season and were therefore playing their first game in it's defence.

A crowd of 23,708 witnessed two Nat Lofthouse goals, one in each half, to earn the Wanderers a fourth round tie with Wolves.

GREAVES—WHATMORE PARTNERSHIP AGAIN

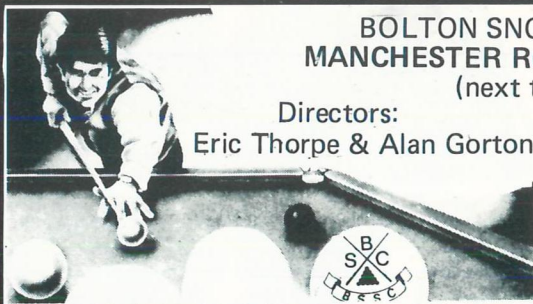

When Neil Whatmore teamed up again with Ian Greaves at Mansfield one of his early assignments was to take sole charge of the Youth Team for a 4th Round Cup tie at Middlesbrough. Neil said, "Ian just gave me all the details and sent me on my way. I had to organise and pay the meal bill and having always been used to everything being done for me, it made me feel important to the Club straight away."

Besides passing on some of his experience to the YTS lads and playing in the Reserves, Neil is sent on scouting missions to spy forthcoming opposition.

He concluded, "Ian must have confidence in my knowledge of the game, we think the same, but after all I was brought up by him wasn't I?"
